Meet CikSandy, the Principal Trainer

Sandy Tan @ CikSandy is an author, speaker and trainer in public speaking and communication skills. She creates simple and easy-to-follow formulas to help people master verbal and non-verbal communication quickly and systematically.

Sandy joined the training industry in 2008. Besides being an HRDC Trainer, Sandy is also a certified Virtual LearnCaster, Professional Learning Facilitator, Basic NLP Practitioner and...

... CLEAR/LEAP Facilitator (communication /leadership programme). She has written 2 books, The Science of Public Speaking and English Pronunciation for Malaysians. Sandy is also the President of KEPENTAS (Kelab Pidato Perdana Antarabangsa), a regional organization which promotes public speaking mastery in the Malay language.

In her public workshops and corporate programmes, Sandy regularly delivers the desired training outcomes by helping participants to speak and communicate more effectively.
